FYI

New Overtime Rules Issued: What it Means for You

Starting December 1, new overtime rules kick in that will make millions more employees qualify for overtime pay. The changes include a dramatically higher pay threshold that determines whether workers are eligible for overtime at a rate of at least one and one-half times their regular pay. With a few months of lead time, employers need to take a look at their operations and decide how to incorporate the changes. This article explains.

Timely Opportunities

More Adult Children Opting to Live with Parents

Plans to remodel your kid's bedroom into an exercise room or walk-in closet after he or she completes school may have to be put on hold. A recent study reveals that more young adults are opting to live with their parents as opposed to moving out on their own or with friends. Surprisingly, the uncertain economy isn't always the reason — and many parents and live-in adult children are happy with the set-up. Here's more on this emerging trend.
